THE SESSION AT OTTAWA.

The third session of the tenth parliament of Canada has closed after a session of one hundred and fifty seven days.

One of the conspicuous developments of the session has been that notwithstanding the mad-dog freedom which Mr. Borden allowed his followers, no debator of real merit nor parliamentary dexterity of first rank has been discovered in the muddled crew that man the opposition benches behind him.

The methods of warfare employed by the opposition has shirked the House and the public of a campaign of personalities which, in any case if they could have been proved, would equally stigmatize the treacherous and the traitorous, for he fights with such ill-favored weapons as women and wine-chests is regarded with the same detestation as his victim.

On the other hand the session has shown the ability of the Liberal rank to hold its own in the absence of some of its most important members, and the intellectual predominance of the Liberal.

From the nature of the attack of the opposition, the conflict has mostly fallen upon the members of the administration, while scores of others have not had favorable opportunity to win new laurels in debate. Opposition came from many quarters. In Mr. Bourassa the government had to contend with one of the most versatile parliamentarians that has appeared for a generation in the House of Commons. Yet Bourassa's attack has not impaired the prestige of the government.

W. F. McLean has kept in his lone furrow quite regardless of the interests of the organized Conservative party, but has never spared an opportunity to criticize and embarrass the government. Mr. Foster, who has been brought so prominently into the public notice by the searchlight of the insurance commission, made a supreme effort to discredit the report and the minister under whose department the investigation was conducted. He failed. His defence was an abrogation of the law of trust, and not only to hamper the findings of the commission against him and his associates, Fowler and Leferguy.

The government met parliament with one of its members absent—Mr. Hyman of the public works department. That department was through the session conducted in the house with great success by Hon. Mr. Fisher in addition to his own department of agriculture. On March 26, as a consequence of alleged libellous charges in three Canadian papers, Hon. Mr. Emmerson gave up his portfolio of railways, temporarily held since then by the minister of finance. And a few days later the premier and the minister of militia and marine sailed for England for the colonial conference, and some considerable part of the departmental work in parliament of the two later was left in the hands of the depleted cabinet. Since the beginning of last month, therefore, the House of Commons has been deprived of the assistance of no less than five of the cabinet ministers.

The house assembled towards the end of November under the glow of two events of the past vacation—the insurance commission's hearing and the Toronto investigation of the Laford election. The latter had been removed from the arena by the late, unsuccessful, for a time, of the member for London, Hon. Mr. Hyman, to resign his seat. Future allusions were confined to insinuations of other reasons for Mr. Hyman's retirement. No such prohibition was set on the topic of the insurance report. The evidence taken before that commission was public property, and there was a strong feeling current that it inspired not only a public character, but the parliamentary freedom of speech of Conservative members. Conservative were sensitive and irritable at every allusion, however vague, to the revelations there made, while Liberals were anxious to press their advantage, and in their impatience frequently overlooked the fact that the report and evidence were not formally before the house. The situation, however, did not become strained until after Christmas.

The Conservatives got to work at the very beginning on a line of operations that looked very much like a resumption of the "second session" of last year. But their success was even less encouraging. Mr. Ames put in demands for copies of papers relating to the Galway Horse & Cattle Co., the Grand Forks Cattle Co., the Milk River Cattle Co., the Roblin Irrigation Co. and the Saskatchewan Valley Land Co. in the second week of the session, and the actions of the interior departments in regard to these various interests in Alberta and Saskatchewan were pursued to the uttermost with most unsatisfactory results. All these were cases of people who had made large profits by rapid rise in value of certain lands—a fact which in itself seemed to be regarded as suspicious, if not criminal. The Conservative investigators. The secretary of the North Atlantic Trading Company was again raised, and was animated on at length at various times until an advanced stage of the session. The Ross rifle was the subject of an energetic attack, Col. Hughes joining the Government in its defence.

In view of the circumstances of the session, there is more ground for surprise that the important legislation effected was so much rather than that it was so little. Even if the Lennoxville Conciliation Act were the only novel legislation, it would be sufficient to give any session an honorable place in history. The re-adjustment of the Provincial subsidies is also a step of the utmost importance. The readjustment of the country's tariff, though an operation of the first magnitude, was not actually performed. By this Parliament, was really the result of previous consideration and of the labors of the Tariff Commission, and was effected in the House with scarcely a ripple on the placid waters of the debate.

The month of January, in spite of the amount of recommitment that becom to be noticeable, saw a good deal of legislation of some importance put through the difficult stages. For instance, there was the Canned Foods Inspection Bill of Mr. Fisher, the Electric Power Export Bill of Mr. Aylesworth, and some bills correcting anomalies in the constitutional arrangements made two sessions ago for the West.

In February, the Opposition, and particularly Mr. Foster, began to develop their attempted parity of the loss inflicted by the insurance report by other than the insurance commission was inspired for partisan purposes by Hon. Mr. Aylesworth. The absence of written instructions was used as an argument to show that there must have been partisan verbal instructions. Allegations of the existence of a lumber combine in British Columbia led to the appointment of a special committee, which later elicited much striking information. The reconciliation Bill had considerable trouble in committee owing to the attitude of the railroad employees. On Feb. 14, Mr. Foster made his famous "Women, Wine and Grass" speech, and in the consequent reaction, personalities more or less completely disappeared from the debates. Much time was lost in the debates on this extraordinary utterance later in the session, and the insurance report, but on various technical grounds Mr. Foster was left in peace without being called on to withdraw or substantiate his insinuation against unnamed Ministerials.

The three Ministers left on April 2 after a few days of the utmost uncertainty whether the position of public business would permit Sir Wilfrid Laurier to leave the country. Subsequent events have shown that his presence at the very earliest meetings of the conference was indispensable for the securing of the Canadian conception of Imperial relations. The proceedings of the House since his departure have, however, been somewhat tame. The voting of supply has proceeded with very little incident, preceded on a good many occasions by an amendment embodying some alleged land scandal, no one of the half dozen examples of which has succeeded in taking hold of the public mind.

The picturesque features of the month were the debate precipitated by Mr. Foster on the insurance Report in which he was cruelly countered by Mr. Aylesworth and was supported on division by only seventeen of the Conservative following; the debate on immigration in which Mr. Bourassa developed his fear of Western development as a menace to French-Canadian influence; the obstructive debate on the Hamilton Radial Bill; and finally the spectacular overthrow of the Opposition in the matter of the charge of invasion of Provincial Rights in the occupation of Pellyville for camp purposes. The last hours of the session were prolonged by the difficulties of a very unusual piece of business, the adoption of a resolution petitioning the British Crown for an amendment of the B. N. A. Act increasing the provincial subsidies, which again called out a strenuous protest from Mr. Bourassa, against what he described as special favors to the West.

A few important measures, even out of the very limited programme laid out for what it was known would be a restricted session have had to be abandoned. Mr. Oliver's new Lands Bill incurred the hostility of Mr. Greenwood and the Manitoba element's. Templeman's patent medicine bill owed too contentious. His admirable Juvenile Delinquents' Bill of the Senate never reached consideration in the House.

Private bills were exceptionally few and uninteresting. None of them excited any violent protest except that of the Hamilton Radial Electric Co., which had to combat the whole force of the wave of so-called Provincial Rights enthusiasm in Ontario, and was talked to death. Many public works schemes were laid over owing to the absence of the Minister, notably the Georgian Bay Canal survey.

STILL IMITATING.

In this, one of the most important years in the development of the city, it is to be regretted that a competent business man does not occupy the position of Mayor. A man strong enough to govern is what is needed. A dominating influence is necessary in every administrative body, and instead of that our city council is subjected to an inviting one. Blustering and blustering one day, whining and complaining the next, it is no wonder that the man at the head of Edmonton's affairs is proving such a disappointment to his friends who expected something better.

Making a "show" in the council and taking hold of the administration of the city's affairs are two different things. The man who can successfully govern must have a well-defined policy and must keep the city's interests paramount no matter what his own personal aspirations are or how anxious he may be to air them.

The mayor took the position upon the granting of gas franchises that he was determined to give an exclusive franchise or monopoly privilege to the natural gas people, and that he was going to oppose granting any kind of franchise to the artificial gas company. In his support of the one and opposition to the other he has never advanced one valid reason for the position. A man who was sure of his logical position to the council, instead of this the mayor has preferred to rely that he had two votes, thereby occupying the position of the weakling who would be a tyrant. His petty opposition to artificial gas has been hopelessly illogical and without the city's interests.

tent logical floundering fywp qkxw Alderman Walker has made a consistent logical fight against the conduct of his work and no one has attempted the refutation of a single argument advanced by this new member of the council, and he certainly deserves better support than he has been getting. It would be ridiculous to have the council wake up and take matters in their own hands. A certain amount of sympathy is probable due the mayor though, when we consider how difficult it has always been for some people when any authority is delegated to them to realize that the people have any rights whatever. A little power is quite as dangerous in certain hands as a little learning is said to be.

NOTE AND COMMENT.
Lord Grey will do away with war if he can have war loans endorsed.
Sir Charles Tupper endorses Sir Wilfrid Laurier's attitude at the Imperial Conference. No plus ultra.
The Bell Telephone Company will find Alberta's minister of public works too strong a battery to suit them.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier denies the report that he called Bourassa a firebrand, and naturally Henri is "ridicled" that he didn't.

The old saying that "westward the star of empire takes its way" will soon be relegated to the limbo of the forgotten for the star is turning to the mighty north the last unexplored heritage of British colonists to be lost completely in the aurora borealis.
The lawyers seem to be at their wit's end in Winnipeg over the grain conspiracy case. If the lawyers are unable to follow the grain men in their evil inclinations what is the farmer going to do? It is up to the attorney-general of Manitoba to see the case through even if some of the counsel for the Crown turn tail and lie down.

EDMONTON WINS TWO MORE GAMES

Trimmed Lawlerton Normals 15-5, and Lawlerton Town Team 38-0

Lawlerton, Idaho, May 4.—Edmonton won the Lawlerton Normal school team by a score of 15 to 5. After the first innings the Normals were unable to hit Blurred, who is a recent addition to White's team from Ogden, Utah. The game was played with hard hitting by the Canadians, team work, signals, squeeze plays and experienced tactics. The feature was a home run by Lual, Edmonton's first baseman in 4th with two men on base. It was a clean swing and he allowed only 4 hits.

Four drunks appeared at the police court this morning as a result of a Saturday disposition. They were given fines ranging from $5 to $10 each.

The Whitethroat.

Buy bird of the silver arrows of song.

That cleaves our northern air so clear.

Thy notes prolong, prolong.

"I love—dear—Canada, Canada, Canada."

Of plumes of the pointed dusky ear.

Screen of a swelling, patriotic heart.

The copes is all said.

And echoes thy part.

Now willow reeds tune their silver

Rites

As the noise of the day dies down;

And silence strings her lutes.

The whitethroat, to town.

O bird of the silver arrows of song.

Thy note prolong, prolong.

We listen, we hear—

"I love—dear—Canada, Canada, Canada."

New Plan for Securing Domesticity.

The demand for domesticity in Canada and the number of girls in the mother countries who are anxious to emigrate would seem to be two problems which would themselves form a solution, one for the other.

But it has not yet proved so, notwithstanding many well-meant efforts of well-disposed people to bring it about. A new agency is about to contribute its mite toward bridging the space that lies between the two continents.

Mrs. M. L. S. McArthur of 30 Gray's

Hill, Bangor, Ireland, has established a Canadian employment bureau for Canadian emigrants and servants. She addresses herself in a circular to the "ladies of Edmonton and the Canadian Northwest" generally, who are desirous of obtaining domestic help. And she states that she is in a position to supply superior domestic servants to each superior domestic servant.

For Canadian references Mrs. Mc-

Arthur gives Mr. John Kennedy of Poplar Lake, who was the Canadian representative at the London Convention and Mrs. Arthur McGuire, Box 31, Elgin,

Manitoba. The Irish references given

are Mr. O'Reilly, Canadian Government

Agent, Victoria street, Belfast; and the Belfast Banking Company.

The circular, which was given by Mr. Kennedy to a Bulletin representative on his return, invites correspondence for further particulars.

Polly Was Bunkered.

A man, by way of a joke, dropped a golf ball into the nest his ancient parrot had built in the corner of its nest. Polly sat with exemplary patience on her novel egg, and appeared pretty well heart-broken, when the unwarranted. At last parrot flesh could stand that no longer. A terrible screaming brought her owner down stairs at 2 o'clock one morning.

"What's the matter, Polly," he asked, as he noticed the bird's back was chipped trying to get at the egg's interior.

"Matter," screamed the bird.

"Great Scott! I'm bunkered."—The

When We Go Far a Spin in Our Airship.

It may be only a matter of brief time before we are able to take dinner in Edmonton one evening, and travel by an aerial ship drop in on a friend at Fort McPherson the next afternoon for tea.

So at least, Dr. Alexander Graham

Bell, the inventor of the telephone, believes. Dr. Bell is not a man who talks at random.

He is now in London, having gone to England to receive the degree of doctor of science from old Oxford on May 2. Interviewed there recently he made some interesting statements that have been exhibited to this continent.

"My expectation," he said, "is that an airship will be perfected capable of making 150 to 200 miles an hour.

The next step in aerial flight will take the form of such improvements as will make possible the creation of aerial battleships. The actual problem of the navigation of the air has already been solved by the Wright brothers.

Naturally there will be development along commercial lines, a feature of which will be a great increase in speed, but the most attention will be paid to adapting airships to the purposes of war. My belief is that America will be the first country to perfect aerial battleships.

"It is hoped to be added much to test in a series of aerial flight by experiments at Cape Breton Island this summer. My problem this year will be to propel my kites with a specially constructed engine of fifteen horse power, weighing 150 pounds. I hope to get a machine of the heavy-duty type that will support a man and the necessary equipment to operate it at 150, rather than high velocity.

Last December I constructed a vehicle that supported itself and a man in a ten-mile breeze. I now want to fly a machine carrying an engine at 150 or 200 miles an hour.

"I am confident that it will not be long before flying machines will be everywhere. The development of the next few months will be unprecedented, but the most interesting point is that only very few know how near America is to solving a question which will revolutionize warfare throughout the world. I mean the construction of a practical aerial battleship."

Prepared for Temptation.

According to the Dundee Advertiser little Tommy had been forbidden to eat in the street owing to the danger.

One day he came home with unmistakable signs of having been in the water. His mother scolded him severely.

"But I was tempted on badly mother," said Tommy.

"That's all very well, but he'd you come to have your bathing suit with you?"

"Well, mother, I took my bathing suit

along, thinking I might be tempted.

BALFOUR FAVORS A PREFERENCE

Makes Announcement Before
the Famous Primrose Club Demonstration in London.

London, May 1.—Presiding today at the annual demonstration of the Primrose Club the great English Unionist, ex-premier Balfour abandoned his previous attitude of opposition on the subject and came out squarely in favor of protection under the name of preference. He said he was satisfied that a preference policy would ultimately be adopted by this country and emphasized the necessity for "speedy" transacting the settlement of brotherhood into practical action in accepting the offers of Canada and other colonies of preferential treatment for trade within the empire.

AN EXPLORING SYNDICATE.

The Edmonton Exploring syndicate is the name of a party of men organized in the city, the purpose of which is to investigate and develop the timber, mineral and real estate possibilities of the interior of British Columbia. It is in the infancy stages of organization, but the members, who are interested, and it will have plenty of financial backing. The syndicate will be limited to twenty, all to share equally in the expenses as well as the profits.

A provisional board of directors, composed of seven men, has been named, and to them will be entrusted the work of completing the organization and the business of the company into shape. The members of the syndicate are: J. A. MacDougall, who has been named as the man who will probably be at the head of the timber department.

IMMIGRATION OFFICES BUSY.

These are busy days for the officials down at the Immigration office. In no other year has the rush of immigrants been so great, and the six land guides are at the Immigration office to all districts of the country. The fact that there is a free land to be had in Alberta appears to be the great magnet of attraction, and every train brings the quota of immigrants from the Western States. Eastern Canada and the Old Country besides. The greater number are persons looking for homestead lands, and the most of them naturally wish to go as near as possible to the survey lines of the railways running to the northwest and west of Edmonton. The favorite districts being those of the White Horse Lake and the Quilley River and leading towards the Yellowhead Pass.

THROWN FROM HIS HORSE.

Mr. H. B. Davidson, of Wilton street, was thrown from his horse Friday afternoon at the corner of Clark and Nanavoy avenues, sustaining a shock which he underwent his consciousness and inflicted a wound over the left eye.

Mr. Davidson was coming along Clark street at a rapid clip when his horse struck the curb of the cement crossing, it slipped and fell, throwing the rider on to the ground. Alderman Dr. Macaulay and Alderman Thomas Daly, who were passing by, attended to the injured man and had him removed to the General Hospital. He was still unconscious when brought to the hospital. Inquiry as to his condition this morning indicates that Mr. Davidson is doing well, but has sustained painful injuries.

A Dredging Trust.

Cleveland, O., May 1.—Louis F. Smith, of the L. & J. Smith Co., Great Lake dredgers, failed in a suit in the common pleas court today asking for the dissolution of a dredging trust which he says is a fraud. He declares that the Great Lake Dredge and Dock company, which took over the L. & J. Smith Co. of this city, and Loraine Dredge company are in an unconscionable contract to the Valentine anti-trust law.

Granite Cutters Strike.

Montreal, May 1.—The granite cutters to the number of about 150 went on strike here today for higher wages. They are now paid $12 per day and 50 cents an hour, and they demand $14 cents per hour for an eight hour day. Ten shops are affected, and two of the employers have acceded to the demands.

REGINA. The conversion of the C. P. R. for hauling grain was upheld by the Supreme Court. The Saskatchewan lawing league has been formed in the city. Wilton Trust has been appointed to the Police Magistracy of this city. Real estate men have sent a request to the city council through the city engineer asking that this body should act as a central point from which persons should judge the relative value of the city.

The C. N. R. manages to get about one freight train out each day and the yards are gradually being cleared out as a result. The company does not expect freight for the north, however. Five hundred new post office boxes have arrived in the city and have been installed, bringing the total number now in use up to 1,350.

Messrs Whitmore Bros. are stated to have obtained an option upon two lots on the west side of South W. B. Sherman of Calgary has applied for the lease of the auditorium of the new City Hall, at $20,000 a year. He will include Regina in his circuit of theatrical offerings.

GALATRY.

The record freight handling by the C. P. R. in Calgary for the week ending April 30th, aggregated $94,000, the largest ever had.

On Friday, Messrs. Alexander and Budd brought by special train from Regina to Calgary 20 leading Calgary business men who viewed the Canadian prairie.

CAMROSE.

A medical health officer will shortly be appointed by the city council. A movement is being set on foot to obtain a new post office for Camrose. Camrose council decided that $100,000 be charged each year. The new post office will be a two-story building and will be used for the purpose of a hotel and wholesale store each year.

MOORE JAW.

A new system of fire-drill has been instituted in the city schools. Mr. James Smith, the new postmaster, has been duly installed in his position. The assessment on real estate is much higher than last year.

LETHBRIDGE.

Two professors and 10 students composing a mining party from McGill University left Lethbridge and inspected the gold mine this week. The opening shoot of the Alberta Gun Club for this season took place on Monday.

HAPPENINGS IN OTHER PLACES.

A couple of Greenbush men were fined $50 and costs each for drinking to Indiana Messrs. McArthur and Hamilton of the Indian Department presided at the trial. A log laid across the track east of the old N.W.M.P. barracks at Wolfert with the intention of wrecking this train was discovered in time to prevent an accident.

BRITISH TARS WIN.

In Rowing Races Over American and Other Crews. Norfolk, Va., May 1.—British sailors repeated their victory over the American, German, Australian and Argentine crews in today's races in Hampton Roads. The day was the elimination trial between American Argyle's crew for the defence and the British crew for the offence. The British crew won the race in 20 minutes and 30 seconds.

SOME ENGLISH ENTERPRISE.

Richard Grigg, Esq., Commissioner of His Majesty's Board of Trade, London, England, had an important conference with the council of the Edmonton board of trade.

The question of establishing representative of correspondents regarding trade matters at the chief centres of trade and business in Canada in order that the manufacturers of England might be kept more in touch with the trade conditions in Canada was the object of the conference.

It is proposed to establish nine such correspondents in Canada, and Mr. Grigg has been greatly impressed with the city of Edmonton and surrounding district the possibilities of which he thinks are very desirable to have such a correspondent at this point.

This visit of the representative of His Majesty's Board was and is for the purpose of finding out where and how the English manufacturer is at fault in regard to any line of articles that are in demand in this country and which he should have the business as against foreign countries and Mr. Grigg is very anxious to receive accurate information regarding this point.

In order that this might be given the secretary of the Edmonton Board of Trade will be glad to receive information regarding this point from the merchants and manufacturers of this city.

It was pointed out to Mr. Grigg that while the English manufacturer attempted to do his Western business through a broker in Montreal 2,000 miles away, the American manufacturer came and did business on the spot, first by coming and looking over the ground and getting the bearings on his books and then not till then appointing some Western business house to do the trade after stocking him with the goods required.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION OPENS

In Dublin. Designed to Put More Heart in Erin's Population.

Associated Press Despatch.
Dublin, May 3.—The Irish International Exhibition which opens here tomorrow, is an event of far reaching interest to Ireland, as it is designed to revive the drooping interests of the country and at the same time present a picture of Irish development and progress. Men of all classes, creeds and politics, headed by the Marquis of Ormonde have worked indefatigably. A guaranteed fund of nearly £2,000,000 has been raised and an exhibition equipping any previously attempted in Ireland is now about to open.

Expect Big Crowds.

Elsewhere arrangements are being made by the English railway and steamship companies to transport great numbers of visitors to the capital, and their officials say they are prepared to carry between 60,000 and 80,000 passengers daily during July and August. The opposition manifested by the nationalists has somewhat abated and the show promises to be a successful one.

Of No Foreign Interest.

Comparatively few foreign nations have become interested in the enterprise, foremost among those participating being France, Italy and Japan but the principal colonies have sent fine exhibits. The site is convenient to the fine grounds of the Royal Dublin Society at Ballsbridge and the city across it embraces contains the buildings of great beauty and extent. The most imposing of these is the large central hall with its vast dome a hundred and fifty feet in height which has a diameter little less than that of St. Paul's. It is the first object in the group to catch the eye of the visitor arriving from Holyhead. It commands a view of Dublin and Kingston harbor and on a clear day may be easily discerned while the steamer is quite a distance from Kingston. The beautiful grounds have been completely transformed and today they are for the greater part covered by substantial looking structures some of which have an area of six hundred thousand square feet.

Assaulted by Nicaraguans.

Puerto Cortes, April 29. (via Mobile, Ala.)—General Davis, colored, was brutally assaulted at Puerto Cortes on April 27 by Nicaraguan soldiers and may die. Commander Fullam, of the United States gunboat Marietta, has ordered the arrest of Nicaraguan soldiers and officers, and the man dies they will be held for murder. Fullam has assumed charge. Davis is not an officer. His Christian name is General.

DRUNKEN YANKEE TARS.

Starred the Frey with the Police in Santiago.

Associated Press Despatch.
Havana, May 3.—Santiago newspapers containing accounts of the riotous party last Tuesday between the local police and men of the United States cruiser Tacoma have reached here. They declare unanimously that intoxicated sailors began the disturbance by brutally assaulting Captain Lay, when he was remonstrated with them. The main find a third of his revolver in the air to summon assistance. When the police arrived, there ensued a pitched battle between them and the sailors the latter using their pistols and knives.

Irving Succumbs to Clandestine.

It has been officially confirmed that Dr. L. E. W. Irving, who recently resigned the position of city health officer for Edmonton, has been appointed to the position of provincial health officer, vacated by the retirement of Dr. Clendenen.

Dr. Irving will also be secretary of the new provincial board of health. The appointments of the board will be made shortly and will be composed of three medical men and a sanitary engineer. Arrangements also are under way towards the appointment of the provincial pathologist and bacteriologist and the establishment of a bacteriological laboratory.

Early Settlement.

Hamilton, Ont., May 3.—There are prospects of an early settlement of the painters strike which affects nearly 500 men. Half a dozen masters have weakened and signed the new agreement, which provides for increases in wages from 30 to 40 cents per hour.

To Separate Students at Cornell.

Associated Press Despatch.
Ithaca, N.Y., May 3.—The absolute separation of the women students at Cornell from the men was proposed at the Arts banquet in the Dutch Kitchen tonight and it was received with much enthusiasm. Prof. W. E. Olmstead, of the French department, advocated the establishment of a separate department of instruction for the women so that they might not come in contact with the male students and urged that they be graduated at a different time and have a separate class day, separate class officers and separate publications. He was vigorously cheered. Other speakers endorsed those views, and attack the joint attendance of the women with the men students as a hindrance to academic work and an occasion of disruption of class policies.

Thrown from Car Window.

Associated Press Despatch.
Douglas, Man., May 3.—The body of a small child was found near the railway just outside the village today, an odd circumstance would indicate that it had been thrown from a passing train and killed. There is no clue to the inhuman parents.

TORREY MAKES MANLY APOLOGY

For Statement Made in Public Against Norman Murray Which was Slanderous.

Associated Press Despatch.
Montreal, May 3.—Dr. Torrey, evangelist, is sorry for saying unkind things to Norman Murray, a local devotee of the Aristotelian philosophy and said so in public last night.

He said: "I want to say first of all that I did not say that David was a better man than Murray."

Mr. Murray said: "What about David? I said David was a sinner, a great sinner and did not make any comparison of any kind whatever with Murray, and I added that David repented and was pardoned. I did not say that Murray was arrested for selling obscene literature on the streets. I said there is also pardon for you if you were arrested for distributing obscene literature. I made no statement whatever that he was arrested, but said there was pardon for him even if he were. But I am very sorry that I said even that. I had no right to say it. I am sorry, and am glad to say so. I don't make this apology because I am afraid of David. I can afford a lawsuit. I make this apology because I think it is right and my conscience demands it and because and access to God than applause of the whole world."

Norman Murray states that he will accept the apology of Dr. Torrey, evangelist, publicly made at the St. James church last night, but that he must pay legal expenses incurred in connection with the matter. Murray expresses the view that the evangelist in making the attack on him by intimating that there was salvation for him, even if he had obscene literature on the street, was laying a trap for him with the view to having him put out of the meeting, but did not succeed but fell into a trap himself.

KITBOOTS.

Weather conditions remain unchanged. Yet the farmers still believe that "seed time and harvest shall not cease," and continue to haul away farm implements daily. This point has a larger supply of implements and more implement agents than any other place along the line. Building operations have begun in earnest. Messrs. Dale and Lowery have purchased lots here, and will in the next few weeks erect a large hardware store. Robinson Bros. are putting up a building which rumor says is to be used as a drug store. We expect work will start very shortly on the government road to the north. Already two cars of bridge material have been unloaded. A petition has gone in to the department of public works asking for a ferry to connect with the road. This will open up a fine new district for settlement, less than thirty miles from the railway. Messrs. H. C. Graham and T. H. Currie attended the banquet headed by H. Holden at Verreville on the 20th. They report a very pleasant evening.

REGULATIONS FOR BUILDINGS.

Inspector Blaney is preparing some suggestions for a new city by-law for the regulation of building. His principal suggestions are that future Jasper avenue buildings be at least two stories high, with basement, and of solid brick or stone, buildings within three hundred feet of Jasper to be at least one story high and of brick with or without basement. He will also recommend, to prevent spread of fire, that a projection of brick be placed on each floor to close the space between the brick wall and the stripping. This would prevent fire running up from one floor to the other along the walls.

LOCALS.

The afternoon train was three hours late yesterday.

Waller's ferry has again been started after the season during the winter.

The mounted drills of "B" squadron C.M.B. will commence this week at the squadron drill grounds.

Rev. J. C. Bowen, the new pastor of the Methodist church, is expected to enter upon his duties here on Sunday, the 14th of May next.

The services at the Presbyterian Church yesterday were taken in the morning by Rev. Mr. Kerr and in the evening by Mr. Scott.

The night police officer is doing considerable effective light work on the streets during the past week, and a number of drunks appear almost daily before the magistrate.

J. J. Duggan, of Strathmore, buyer for F. Burns, recently contracted for several hundred head of deer from ranches to the northeast of Calgary, for delivery about June 15th.

R. W. McIntyre, assistant engineer of the Alberta department of public works, has come to Strathmore from Calgary and will take up his residence here. He has purchased the property of Robert Palmer, on Saskatchewan avenue, and will reside there.

On Saturday evening, about eight o'clock, a Strathmore Fire Brigade Band serenaded Hon. Mr. Rutherford and family at their residence on Main street north. At the close of the open air concert the Premier invited the band to his residence where they were treated to refreshments. After a pleasant hour they departed, wishing the genial premier and his family a pleasant trip across the Atlantic and a safe return.

The old Niblock street church, which has been condemned for some time owing to a defect in the foundation, has been purchased for $200 by the New College Institute. The school is a brick structure erected in 1870, and for some time past, since the erection of the new Dugan street school, has been used as the archives of the C.M.B.

With the evening service yesterday Rev. Mr. Alexander concluded his engagement with the Baptist Church, the pulpit of which he has occupied since he accepted after the resignation of Rev. Mr. Covey several months ago. In a few days Rev. Mr. Alexander will remove to his farm east of Edmonton, where he lives each summer for the benefit of his health. The services next Sunday will be given by Rev. Mr. McDonald, Lodge, and the succeeding week the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Bowen, will take charge.

The Strathmore Industrial Exhibition Association have decided to call for tenders for the purchase of the grounds on Main street during the past year. The immense increase in value of city property during the past year has rendered the grounds which are now near the centre of the city a very large sum of money, and the shareholders think are too valuable for their present purpose. As a result the sale has been postponed. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed at the Methodist church yesterday morning.

PONOKA PREACHER CANADA OWNS A HIGHER CRITIC HALF THE BUFFALO

Mr. R. E. Guyett, of Baptist Church There has been Refused Ordination.

A despatch from Ponoka indicates that little town apparently has a real live heresy case. A rather peculiar and a somewhat unusual situation has developed in Ponoka with regard to the proposed ordination of Mr. R. E. Guyett, M.A., B.D., into the pastorate of the Ponoka Baptist church. A council of the church in Alberta authorized to bestow on Mr. Guyett the full powers and dignity of a Baptist minister refused after an examination of the candidate to carry out its prerogative. While all concerned are very reticent, it is understood that with the exception of one opinion on the council all were dissatisfied with Mr. Guyett's answers to questions relative to the expository significance of the crucifixion. Mr. Guyett was strictly orthodox in his views on God and other questions, but in the opinion of the majority he failed to measure up to the orthodox Baptist conception of the sacrifice on Calvary. Great regret is expressed at the action of the council as Mr. Guyett is a brilliant student, and possesses to an exceptional degree the qualities which go to make a successful pastor. The council passed a resolution "fellowshipping" Mr. Guyett's Christian character and call to the ministry but failed to give the "call" force by empowering him to discharge the functions of a pastor. In the opinion of many of Mr. Guyett's friends the council was weak in this respect for it is he is deemed a "heretic" than he could not logically be "fellowshipped". The outcome has caused much pain to Mr. Guyett's friends and while he is content of the church, his position is regarded as utterly untenable as he is not allowed to administer the sacraments and rites of the church. It is thought that the action of the council will precipitate a discussion in church circles which may result in radical changes. It is not at all likely that Mr. Guyett has a monopoly of views condemned by the council at Ponoka.

Mr. W. McDonald, pastor of the First Baptist church in Edmonton, who is a member of the council, declined to discuss the situation when interviewed upon the subject. He said the matter was still under consideration.

That are Still Extant. What 30 Years has Done to Deplete the Buffalo.

Winnipeg, May 5.—By the Dominion Government's purchase of the herd of 30 buffalo from the Flathead Indian reservation, Montana, Canada becomes the possessor of the largest herd of purebred bison in the world. Superintendent Douglas of Banff Park, will superintend the loading of the animals and look after their disembarkation at Lamont, Alta., where they will remain for a time.

In obtaining this valuable herd of the Great Slave and the Peace and Hay rivers, northwest of Lake Athabasca and south of Great Slave Lake. These are called wood bison, but are in fact the old plain bison with thicker, darker robe and a fuller stern. The extreme cold of this region naturally selected by the buffalo explains the warmer pelts.

This herd is variously estimated to consist of from three to five hundred three or four years ago it was said officially number six hundred. As only a stray Indian or so now and then encounters the range, these animals there is good cause for the wide difference of figures. Actually very little is known of the herd.

600 Buffalo in Canada.

Other pure blood bison in Canada are 20 animals in the National Park.

Band, eleven at Winnipeg and two at Toronto, making in all 551 pure bloods within the Dominion. With the arrival of the new herd from Montana, Canada will have at least 600 pure blood bison, a number almost equal to the total of the herds south of the boundary line.
